

BARBEQUE FACILITIES - CONDITIONS OF USE FORM

The use of the barbecue facilities is subject to the conditions detailed in this document.

Prior to Usage

- The usage of the facilities is on a first-in, first-served basis and it is free to use for all residents at Neue. Please be informed that the facilities are available to use daily between 7 am to 10 pm.
- A large event or function will need to be booked with the Building Management at least 48 hours prior to the use date, the event or function booking will be given priority over other general usage requests.
- Prior to use the area, this form requires to be completed and sent back to the Building Management on management@neuesydney.com.au

On Commencement of Usage

- Please look over the area to ensure it is clean and undamaged. Unless you notify building management/security of any damage/untidiness, it will be assumed the area was taken in perfect condition and you will be expected to leave the area in such state.

Use of Facilities

- There are three benches, an electrical BBQ plate and a water sink that can be used by residents. Please keep this area clean and tidy during the usage.

On Completion of Usage

- All BBQ facilities must be cleaned and tidied up. Any insufficient cleaning, damages that require rectification after the usage will be on-charge to the resident. For the event or function bookings, the area must be vacated by the scheduled time.
- Please ensure the barbecue cupboards are padlocked after usage.
- If the usage of the facilities ends during building management office hours (Monday to Friday - 8 am to 4:30 pm), then building management can be contacted to inspect the area. Outside these hours, please lock the area and it will be inspected when building management is next on-site.
